Upon consideration of the United States' Consent Motion to Modify the Scheduling Order dated March 4, 2022, and for good cause shown, the United States' motion is GRANTED. The Court finds that good cause exists to modify the Scheduling Order in order to expedite discovery and to enable the parties to prepare for dispositive motions and trial. Accordingly, the Scheduling Order shall be modified to include the following:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2)(A)(i), the parties may depose any person, including a party, without further leave of Court unless the deposition would result in more than 50 depositions or more than 250 hours of deposition testimony being taken under Rule 30 by the plaintiffs collectively, or by the defendants collectively. Further, the parties may depose any expert witness disclosed by an opposing party pursuant to Rule 26(a)(2) without regard to these limitations, but otherwise in accordance with the terms of Rule 30.
